Book online trainings, save travel expenses

More flexibility for your safety

FLEX®
Classroom™

More online, less travel.

We offer you the maximum flexibility for your next IT training course and are expanding our range of online training courses. Whether individual course bookings or on-sites, you decide which training suits you best!

FLEX™ Classrooms
You can participate in the training on-site in the classroom or remote/online.
You can find all details under: www.flane.ch/en/flex

ILO-Training (Instructor Led Online-Training)
The training takes place exclusively online via a WebEx training session. The system requirements for Webex are listed in the following.

Your benefits?

- No travel time and costs
- Independent location - participation from anywhere (whether office or home office)
- Exactly the same learning content and learning objectives
- Environmentally friendly training
- No direct contact with larger groups of people

You can also use the opportunity to take part in a FLEX or ILO training from one of our training centres!

Your desired course is currently not offered as FLEX™ Classroom Training? We would be happy to review the possibility of offering your course as FLEX™ Classroom Training, even at short notice. Please contact us by phone: +41 44 832 50 80 or e-mail: info@flane.ch
